Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I received a letter from a [redacted]
[redacted] constituent now living at [redacted]
[redacted]

He is hoping to find employment with the Central Intelligence Agency. He advised me that the C. I. A. wrote him a year ago that he had been "cleared" to work in the General Counsel's Division but that he could not be employed because of budget curtailment. [redacted] wrote that if you could and would evaluate his possibilities, some temporary appointment might be found for him.

No doubt, your office has a file on [redacted]
I will appreciate it if you or one of your aides examine that file and advise as to prospects and procedure for [redacted]

Very sincerely,

Henry C. Dworshak
